

Iterated Automorphism Orbits

Joshua Strong (UCR)

Abstract: The classification of domains of several complex variables can be related to the geometry of the boundary. If the group of automorphisms of such a domain is noncompact, then we may be able to acquire information about certain boundary points. We will discuss a special case of the Greene-Krantz conjecture, specifically when iterations of automorphisms act nicely.