

Statements on University Requirements

COVID – 19 REGULATIONS: We are required to follow University rules on pandemic mandates. Currently face coverings are required; statements from the Provost indicate that classes are to be canceled if someone in a classroom refuses to wear a mask. In such cases, my intention is to record and post a Zoom lecture as a substitute.

University policies are subject to modification throughout the quarter. It is everyone's individual responsibility to stay informed about any possible future changes.

STUDENT DISABILITY ACCOMMODATIONS: Federal law requires such accommodations for students with certified disabilities. Students who have been certified by the University as eligible for academic adjustments should go to the Special Services office and request the information on how to proceed this term to get these adjustments made in their courses. This should be done during the first week of classes. Information regarding this office is available at <https://sdrc.ucr.edu>. Only students who have been certified by the University and who have requested the University to send their certification letter to their instructor are legally eligible for academic adjustments.

Students who are currently undergoing an evaluation process to determine whether they are eligible for academic adjustments are encouraged to find out NOW what procedures they will have to follow when they are certified by requesting the information mentioned above.
