

Drawing for the disjoint union construction

In Section I.2 we introduced a concept of disjoint union for two sets A and B . The following drawing illustrates the construction. We start with some set S which contains both sets, then we construct two copies or pages of S , after which we take the copy of A in the first page and the copy of B in the second.

